The Foundation of Fortune

THE habit of saving, formed in early life, is the foundation of many a fortune. Thrifty people patronize the savings bank, and prosper. The department of savings is a special feature with this bank. It has many large deposits. It has many small deposits, and all draw the same rate of interest.—4 percent paid on all savings accounts.

ARRESTS WILL BE MADE

IF OWNERS LEAVE HORSES AND VEHICLES STANDING ON THE STREETS OF THE CITY—MAYOR SHIELDS GIVES POLICE INSTRUCTIONS.

The streets of the city shall not be blocked by standing horses, carriages, wagons, drays and so on in the future if Mayor Shields can prevent it. The practice has become such a nuisance and so many people have made complaints to him that the Mayor instructed the members of the city police force early Saturday morning to arrest any person leaving horses or vehicles standing in the streets. They will be tried and, if convicted, fined for committing a nuisance.

The streets of the city are, unfortunately, not of the boulevard character and when several rigs are standing along in the street it renders a considerable obstruction to traffic. There have been streets blocked in such a way that if the fire department should make a run along them a big smash-up would result. Owners of horses and vehicles who have been unintentionally committing this nuisance will please take warning.

LAWN FETE

Will Be Given By Ladies of Goff Epworth League at Residence of Mr. Quinlan, on Mulberry Street, for League Convention Expense Fund.

The ladies of the Fourth department of the Goff Epworth League will hold a lawn party on the lawn and porches of the residence of Mr. Quinlan, corner Mulberry and College streets (near Chestnut street), on Thursday evening of next week, the proceeds to be devoted to the expense fund of the Epworth League convention that is to be held in Clarksburg in July. The preparations are in charge of Miss Dora Rideout, assisted by Miss Maud Bogges and other young ladies of the church, and are being pushed with vigor, and a generally good time is promised. Attractive young ladies will act as waitresses and attend to the wants of patrons. Ice cream, cake, coffee, candy, lemonade, peanuts, etc., will be on sale. The West End Mandolin and Guitars club will enliven the occasion with music. Should Thursday evening be stormy the next fair evening will be selected. The liberal patronage of the public is solicited.

SPECIAL FEATURE FOR WALDO'S SUNDAY DINNERS.
Splendid arrangements have been made by Mr. Gaxley of the Waldo Hotel for the table d'hôte dinners to be served Sunday noon and evening. Excellent music has been provided beautiful flowers for decorations will be used and other attractive features added for the occasion. An unusually fine menu has been prepared and there will no doubt be a large attendance.
